3. REVIEW of SAFE HAVEN

3.1. The Strengths of Safe Haven

The strengths of the novel Safe Haven are theme and character.

3.1.1 Theme

Theme is divided into two categories. The first is major theme and the second is minor theme. The major theme of Safe Haven written by Nicholas Spark is affection while the minor theme is forgiving each other.

3.1.1.1 Affection

Affection is a feeling of love from people to other people, friend, God, and family. It can be described by action, verbal, and sacrifice.

The first affection comes from Erin Tierney (Katie) for Kristen when Kristen sees her father trying to save Josh from drowning.
Kristen was sitting beside him, her eyes still red and puffy. She’d asked Katie to stay with her for a while, and Katie had remained at her side, holding her hand even now.

...“And also, thank you for taking care of Kristen....” (Sparks, 2012: 34-35)

From the quotation above, it shows that Erin (Katie) gives affection by action, even though there is no relationship between them. She tries to calm the panic and fear of Kristen by staying and holding her hand. At that time, Kristen also gets protection from Erin (Katie). So, she feels safe.

The next affection comes from Erin (Katie) for Kevin when he tries to shoot Josh, Kristen, and Alex.

“I used to love you,” she said. “I married you because I loved you.”
“You wouldn’t let me drive or have any friends and you kept the money and made me beg you for it..... I was your wife and I loved you!”
“I loved you!” she sobbed, ... (Sparks, 2012: 358-360).

From the quotation above, it shows that Erin (Katie) gives affection by verbal. It can be shown that there are words “I love you” more than one which Erin (Katie) has said. Erin (Katie) really loves her husband even though she gets over protection from him. Therefore, she feels uncomfortable. She wants to get freedom from Kevin. Erin (Katie) says “I love you” to explain and make Kevin believes him that she will not betray him.

3.1.1.2 Forgiving Each Other

The theme of forgiving each other in the novel Safe Haven has contributed not too much to the story but it is important to be discussed. The incident starts when Jo talks to Erin (Katie) about Alex and his kids in the bar. Erin (Katie) feels angry with Jo because Jo cares about them and expresses her worries to Erin (Katie). Therefore, Erin (Katie) thinks again about it and realizes that there are some important things about herself. She is not worried about that incident again and forgives Jo. Forgiving each other is about forgetting someone’s misbehaviour in the past and thinking positively about them.

...”It’s okay,” she said. “I wasn’t mad.”
Katie touched her arm. “I appreciate the apology, but it’s not necessary. You actually made me realize some important things about myself.” (Sparks, 2012: 268)

From the quotation above, it shows that Erin (Katie) has forgiven Jo. The words “appreciate the apology” and “wasn’t mad” prove that forgiving each other needs calm heart and respect for other people’s goodwill. Erin (Katie) also thinks positively. It can be proved with the word “realize”.

3.1.2 Character And Characterization

Character is the main element in the story. It can be described with his or her characterization; based on physical conditions, psychological conditions and social circumstances.

1. Erin Tierney (Katie)

   Based on physical conditions, Erin Tierney (Katie) is described as a woman that her age is twenty-seven years old. She has chestnut brown short hair and wears no makeup. Therefore, Kevin Tierney can not identify Erin when he looks for Erin in Southport. Before she goes to Southport, her real hair is blond and long. It is described directly by the author and conversation with other character.

   Her short hair was chestnut brown; ... She wore no makeup and knew her face would pick up a bit of color, may be too much.
   She was twenty-seven years old, a former long-haired blond with no real friends.
   “My hair isn’t naturally brown. I’m really a blond.” (Sparks, 2012: 3,8 and 231).

   To describe the character can use psychological conditions including characteristics, mentality, hobbies, and ambitions. Based on psychological condition, Erin (Katie) has many characteristics. She is kind, intelligent, charming, humorous, independent, patient, sweet, and gentle. The characteristic of Erin (Katie) is described directly by the author and the reaction of other characters.
“I think you’re intelligent and charming, and that you’re a person with a kind heart....You’re independent, you’ve got a good sense of humor, and you show surprising patience with children....”

He shouldn’t have hit Erin because she was sweet and kind and gentle and she didn’t deserve to be pinched or kicked (Sparks, 2012: 135, 136, and 244).

2. Kevin Tierney

Based on psychological condition, Kevin has many characteristics. He is patient, diligent, and loyal. The characteristics of Kevin are described directly by the author and conversation with other characters.

“And so you thought you’d hit the bars? Meet some women?”

“I’m not like that,” Kevin said tightly. “I love my wife.” (Sparks, 2012: 224 and 242).

To describe the character can use social circumstances which affect the behaviour of the character. It can be position, job, social class, and ideology. Based on social circumstances, Kevin has a bad characteristic. He is violent. He dares to do violent act because he is a police and detective. So, another policeman cannot help Erin (Katie) to press charges because Kevin has the highest position among the other policemen. The characteristics are described by the conversation with other characters.

“...Because he gradually grew more violent and controlling over time,...”

“...They came to the house and talked to me. They convinced me not to press charges.”

“Kevin warned me that it wouldn’t do any good to call the police.”

“Because he is the police,”...”He’s a detective with Boston Police Department...” (Sparks, 2012: 169 and 167).

His hair had turned gray when he was in his early twenties...
He’d been promoted regularly, finally retiring as a major at thirty-two.
For months after they lost her, he simply couldn’t imagine ever being in another relationship... (Sparks, 2012: 17 and 21).

Based on psychological conditions, Alex has many characteristics. He is kind, strong, caring, and smart. The characteristics of Alex are described by the author through a message from Carly (Jo) to Alex. It can be proved by the quotation. You’re kind and strong and caring and smart; (Sparks, 2012: 256).

Then the plot goes back again to a scene of Katie when she lives in Southport.

In her first year of marriage, Kevin rarely hit her and sometimes she went for walks without him.

It was mid-June and Katie was leaving Ivan’s after finishing up a busy dinner shift when... (Sparks, 2012: 196 and 212)

Based on the quotation above, the words “her first year of marriage” prove that the plot changes from flash forward into flashback. Then the words “Ivan’s” prove that the plot changes again into flash forward. The words “Ivan’s” are the name of the shop in Southport.
